

Parish of Saint Columbanus, Loughlinstown

Friday 18th September

As we go to print with this Newsletter, word has come in from the Archdiocese that it now seems most likely that the entire County Dublin will be placed on Level 3 of the Governments COVID-19 Resilience and National Recovery Plan, beginning at midnight Friday 18th of September for a three-week period.

It is likely therefore that places of worship will remain closed from midnight tonight, except for private prayer, weddings and funerals.

Attendance at wedding liturgies and funerals would be limited to 25 and religious services can be transmitted online with no public presence.

Our Sunday Mass, this Sunday 20th September and will be streamed live from Sts. Alphonsus and Columba church at 11am via their webcam, by logging on with the link below:

As from Monday 21st of September, for the next three weeks or until we receive further instructions from the Archdiocese, our Church will be open for private prayer on:

Monday, Wednesday and Friday
From 9.30am to 1pm

Please join us for Mass on Sunday where we will have more information.

Your brother in Christ

Enda L.

CROSSCARE

This weekend 19th/20th of September is the annual Crosscare Collection weekend. Unfortunately due to the current Covid19 restrictions on Dublin, it is most likely that this collection will not take place or will be deferred to a later date. If you would like to support Crosscare during the lockdown there are Crosscare Prepaid envelopes available in the Church which you can pick up if you are visiting the Church on the days we are open.

Alternatively you could make a contribution directly to Crosscare on line at www.crosscare.ie Or through your bank using the following details:

CROSSCARE CURRENT ACC
BANK ACCOUNT NUMBER : 10013438
IBAN : IBANIE90BOFI90001710013438
