November Remembrance Mass

Our annual Remembrance Mass will take place on 17th November at 7pm

For the month of November our annual Remembrance Tree will be on the Altar.
You are invited to write the names of your loved ones on the tags provided and leave them in the basket for a staff member to place on the tree on your behalf.

The Remembrance Cross will be beside the Altar for you to place a candle on in memory of your loved one.
The candles are €2 each which can be put into the shrine beside the Cross.

Crosscare

Crosscare is expanding its food support services.

Crosscare Food Services are working towards a new model in which we support individuals and families to exit food poverty, moving to more sustainable outcomes. Through our case workers we will assess each situation and provide appropriate support which could be, a short – term or emergency food supplement parcel, information and guidance, budgeting and meal planning or signposting to other relevant organisations.

If you need support please contact
Crosscare Food Poverty Case Worker on:

01 8913022 or email foodcaseworkservice@crosscare.ie and explain your situation.

You will receive help to find long-term solutions to any problems you are experiencing
